Qurbana on Campus Booklet

Creation Guide

3 Flexible Parts of Qurbana

- Hymns
- Anaphora
- Propria

Hymns

- These are all the songs that are usually done in every Qurbana.
  - As Our Lord Commanded, Laku Mara (Lord of all), Trisagion (Brothers and sisters…)
- Three versions in new book
  - Hymn  A: Chicago Tune
    - What we are used to
  - Hymn B: Syriac Form
    - Traditional and fits every tune EXCEPT Chicago
  - Hymn C: Prose form
    - Spoken.
- Suggestion: to use Hymn B
  - Easy for priests who are unfamiliar with it
  - Instruments not necessarily needed if that’s an issue
  - Extremely flexible, fits MANY tunes

Anaphora (Eucharistic Prayers)

- Anaphora of Addai and Mari
  - From Holy Monday (day after Osana Sunday) to end of the Season of the Dedication of the Church (the last Season of the Church)
  - Usually, this is from around late March/April to Novemberish
  - Covers the following Seasons:
    - Easter (Qyamta)
    - Apostles (Slihe)
    - Summer (Qaita)
    - Elijah-Cross-Moses (Elya-Sliba-Muše)
    - Dedication of the Church (Qudash-Idta)

Anaphora (Eucharistic Prayers)

- Anaphora of Theodore
  - From the start of the Season of Annunciation (the first season of the Church) to Osana Sunday (Palm Sunday)
  - Usually, this is from around early December to late March/April
  - Covers the following Seasons:
    - Annunciation (Subara)
    - Nativity (Elda)
    - Epiphany (Denha)
    - Great Lent (Sawma Rabba)
- Technically there is some overlap with the Anaphora during Holy Week, but don’t have to worry about that, since there will probably never be one during Holy Week

Propria

- Latin word for “proper,” that is to say, prayers proper to the Season of the Church
  - 9 sets of propria for the 9 seasons of the Syro-Malabar Church. Need a version for each.
- Seasons:
  - Annunciation (Subara)
  - Nativity (Elda)
  - Epiphany (Denha)
  - Great Lent (Sawma Rabba)
  - Easter (Qyamta)
  - Apostles (Slihe)
  - Summer (Qaita)
  - Elijah-Cross-Moses (Elya-Sliba-Muše)
  - Dedication of the Church (Qudash-Idta)

Three flexible parts (overview)

- Hymn Text
  - Suggestion: Hymn B
    - Easy for priests
    - Instruments not necessarily needed
    - Fits multiple tunes
- Anaphora
  - Two separate ones:

    Anaphora of Addai and Mari

    and

    Anaphora of Mar Theodore
- Propria (propers)
  - Each season needed
  - Begin with Season of Great Fast (Great Lent)

Overall Structuring (1 of 5)

- Command of Christ (As our Lord Commanded…) to Our Father
  - Inflexible
- Opening Prayer, Psalm
  - Flexes according to season. Take from the propria.
- Preparation Prayer for Hymn of Resurrection to Homily
  - Inflexible (note: include fill in the blank style space for readings)
- Karozuza
  - Flexes according to season. Take from propria.
- Imposition of Hands (Bless us O Lord…) to Washing of Hands
  - Inflexible.

Overall Structuring (2 of 5)

- Hymn of the Mysteries
  - Take from the ordinary. (“I have firmly trusted in the Lord…Behold, the Body..”) (pg. 41)
- Hymn of Remembrance to Entrance of Holy of Holies
  - Inflexible.

Overall Structuring (3 of 5)

- Anaphora (First Ghantha to end of Epiclesis)
  - Flexes according to Season
  - Anaphora of Addai and Mari
    - From Holy Monday (day after Osana Sunday) to end of the Season of the Dedication of the Church (the last Season of the Church)
    - Usually, this is from around late March/April to Novemberish
  - Anaphora of Theodore
    - From the start of the Season of Annunciation (the first season of the Church) to Osana Sunday (Palm Sunday)
    - Usually, this is from around early December to late March/April
    - Note: for the prayers of intercession (after the Words of Institution), use the one with responses

Overall Structuring (4 of 5)

- Service of Reconciliation (Have mercy on me, O God…) to beginning of Eucharistic Praise
  - Inflexible
- Eucharistic Praise response (the response to “Glorify the living God”)
  - Flexible. Changes according to Season. Use the prose version. (advanced choirs can change it to sung if they want)
- Reception of Holy Communion Prayers
  - Inflexible.

Overall Structuring (5 of 5)

- Hymn of Praise (tesbohta aka Maran Isho aka “O Lord our God, may these Divine Mysteries…”)
  - Inflexible.
  - Include beginning and end of priest prayer. For response, use prose version. Advanced choirs can insert Maran Isho if they’d like to instead.
- Thanksgiving prayers (concluding prayers)
  - Flexes according to Season